

Abisko – Try out Alpine Ski-touring

An alpine skiing tour means making a worthwhile effort to achieve some good skiing. It also means magnificent views, powder snow and unspoiled terrain: a perfect combination of peace, quiet and action.

On the way up, using climbing skins under our skis and pacing ourselves comfortably, we enjoy the quiet mountains. At the top we take off our climbing skins and enjoy the reward for our efforts - skiing down slopes with a euphoric kick of adrenaline.

The area offers a multitude of classic peaks such as Vassitjåkka, Låktatjåkka, Kopparfjell and Kaisepakte that have routes suitable for beginners. Your guide chooses a suitable "mountain of the day" based on prevailing weather and snow conditions.
