

Abisko – Try out alpine ski-touring

An alpine ski touring means making a worthwhile effort to achieve some good skiing. It also means magnificent views, powder snow and unspoiled terrain.

On the way up, using climbing skins under our skis and pacing ourselves comfortably, we enjoy the quiet mountains. At the top we take off our climbing skins and enjoy the reward for our efforts - skiing down slopes with a euphoric kick of adrenaline.

The area offers a multitude of classic peaks such as Vassitjåkka, Låktatjåkka, Kopparfjell and Kaisepakte that have routes suitable for beginners. Your guide chooses a suitable "mountain of the day" based on prevailing weather and snow conditions.

Important information
When alpine ski touring, we are at the mercy of mother nature. Even though we can in most cases find a sheltered slope and good snow, there are no guarantees, and sometimes we must cancel due to extreme weather conditions. When the tour is cancelled with short notice due to the weather, you will get the full amount refunded. If you need to rent some equipment you can do that in the shop at Abisko Turiststation. As a member of STF and a participant in a guided tour you get a 15 % discount on rentals.
